Re: In re: Highland Capital Management, L.P. – Case No. 19-34054

Dear Jeff:

I am in receipt of your letter sent via email on the evening of December 23, 2020.

In response to the Debtor's demand concerning Mr. Dondero's cell phone, it is our understanding that the phone Dondero is currently using was purchased by Dondero several weeks ago and that the Debtor is not paying for the use of that phone. We are at present not sure of the location of the cell phone issued to Mr. Dondero by the Debtor, but we are not prepared to turn it over without ensuring that the privacy of attorney-client communications by text or email is protected. We are, however, willing to have an independent third party review any items that we would designate as privileged. Our office would need to review what is on the phone to determine what we would designate as privileged before it could reach such a person. In that regard, virtually all communications made between myself and other attorneys employed by Bonds Ellis Eppich Schaffer Jones LLP have been through that phone and in many cases are preserved either as texts or emails.

Sincerely,

/s/ D. Michael Lynn
